

Grantees

Organization	Primary Contact	Email	Grant Purpose	Specific Audience	Specific Geography	Website
Asian American Federation of Florida South Region	Winnie Tang	winnievhtang@aol.com	AAFF will unite leaders of different Asian American & Pacific Islander groups to conduct education and outreach to increase census completion and representation over the next decade.	College Students,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,Older Adults	All of Miami-Dade County	http://asianaamericanfederation.org/members.html
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Miami, Inc.	Jaimee Spector	jspector@bbbsmiami.org	BBBS will educate families in hard-to-count areas of Miami-Dade on the importance of the census and help them fill it out, if appropriate and necessary.	College Students,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,People Experiencing Homelessness,Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://bbbsmiami.org/
Branches, Inc.	LiLin Gaab	lgaab@branchesfl.org	Branches will provide education and assistance to promote active participation in the Census 2020 at all their sites, the United Way Center for Financial Stability, 53 Volunteer Income Tax sites, and 12 Emergency Services Network partner sites, all the way from Florida City to North Miami Beach.	College Students,Farmworkers,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,Older Adults,Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://branchesfl.org/
Camillus House	Christine Perez	christinep@camillus.org	Camillus House will perform tactical outreach activities geared toward inciting census 2020 participation among the homeless community.	Non-English Speakers,People Experiencing Homelessness	Brownsville,City of Miami,Little Haiti	https://www.camillus.org/
Catalyst Miami, Inc.	Kristine Singer	kristines@catalystmiami.org	Catalyst Miami will partner directly with community members and grassroots organizations to implement on-the-ground strategies that will ensure a more accurate count of the low-wealth, under-represented, predominantly people-of-color, and immigrant communities with which they have worked for 20+ years.	Farmworkers,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,Older Adults,Other	City of Miami,Florida City,Hialeah,Homestead,Little Haiti,Miami Gardens	https://catalystmiami.org/
Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Miami, Inc.	Anita Ramjit	aramjit@ccadm.org	Catholic Charities will establish dedicated community sites to provide information and assistance, organize events to promote participation, and conduct targeted outreach and communication efforts with the Catholic community in Miami-Dade.	Children 0-5,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,Older Adults,People Experiencing Homelessness	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.ccadm.org/
Catholic Legal Services, Inc.	Vanessa Joseph	vjoseph@cclsmiami.org	Catholic Legal Services will encourage and promote participation in the 2020 Census within Miami-Dade's immigrant populations, specifically through partnerships with other legal service providers, faith-based organizations, immigrant rights groups, and business and community leaders.	Children 0-5,College Students,Immigrants,Non-English Speakers,Older Adults	All of Miami-Dade County	http://cclsmiami.org/
CCDH, Inc. d/b/a The Advocacy Network on Disabilities	Helene J. Good	hgood@advocacynetwork.org	AND will increase the census participation of individuals with intellectual, developmental, and other disabilities and their families living in both congregate and family/home settings.	Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.advocacynetwork.org/

Organization	Primary Contact	Email	Grant Purpose	Specific Audience	Specific Geography	Website
Centro Campesino Farmworker Center	John Martinez	jmartinez@ccfcl.org	Centro Campesino will reach out to wage workers, migrants, immigrants (regardless of work status) and their families in the South Dade area of Miami-Dade County. They plan to get 5,000 locals to take the census in 2020.	Children 0-5, College Students, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness, Other	Cutler Bay, Florida City, Goulds, Homestead, Homestead Base, Kendall West, Leisure City, Naranja, West Perrine	http://centrocampesino.org/
Circle of Brotherhood	Lyle Grandison	lyle@cobmiami.org	The "We Matter" initiative will include neighborhood based canvassing, educational town hall seminars, and materials and supplies to tackle census mistrust in underresourced communities in Miami-Dade county.	College Students, Older Adults, Other	All of Miami-Dade County, Brownsville, City of Miami, Miami Gardens, Opa-Locka	https://circleofbrotherhood.org/
Community Justice Project, Inc.	Alana Greer	info@communityjusticeproject.com	CJP will provide simple, community friendly answers to common legal questions about the Census, and engage and mobilize racial justice advocates to prioritize Miami-Dade's census efforts.	College Students, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Other	All of Miami-Dade County, City of Miami, Little Haiti	http://communityjusticeproject.com/
Engage USA	David Sleeth	dsleeth@engageusa.org	Engage USA will engage their expansive network of trusted community messengers to raise awareness about the 2020 census in the South Florida Muslims and intersecting marginalized communities. They want to overcome the concerns about the census and secure pledges to complete it.	Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.engageusa.org/about-us/
Engage Miami Civic Fund	Rebecca Pelham	rebecca@engage.miami	Engage Miami will educate students and other young Miamians via class presentations, social media content creation and dissemination, and distribution of engaging and information literature about the purpose and importance of the 2020 census, how to participate, and how to activate family and friends in the effort to count everyone in Miami-Dade.	College Students	All of Miami-Dade County, City of Miami, Doral, Florida City, Hialeah, Homestead, Kendall, Little Haiti, North Miami, Opa-Locka, Richmond Heights	https://engage.miami/
Faith In Florida Miami Dade	Linda Green	lgreen@faithinflorida.org	Faith In Florida Miami Dade will bring community awareness of how an accurate count of the census is important and assist people in filling out the census forms both online and off through working with clergy, congregations, volunteers, canvassers, and community leaders.	Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, Other	Goulds, Miami Gardens, Opa-Locka	https://faithinaction.org/federation/faith-in-florida/
Family Action Network Movement	Rhenie Dalger	rdalger@fanm.org	FANM will access, educate and actualize hard-to-count communities about the importance of the 2020 Census.	Children 0-5, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness	Little Haiti, North Miami, North Miami Beach	https://www.fanm.org/
Florida Association of Free and Charitable Clinics	Nicholas X Duran	nick@fafcc.org	FAFCC will engage its free clinics members across Miami-Dade to conduct data-informed outreach and engagement programs with a historically undercounted population of individuals.	Children 0-5, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, People Experiencing Homelessness, Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.fafcc.org/

Organization	Primary Contact	Email	Grant Purpose	Specific Audience	Specific Geography	Website
Florida Immigrant Coalition	Joy Gibson	joy@floridaimmigrant.org	FLIC will organize its members and convene local partner organizations to conduct targeted outreach and communications to 20,000 households in hard-to-count communities.	College Students, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults	Hialeah, Homestead, North Miami	https://floridaimmigrant.org/
Friends of the Miami-Dade Public Library	Gina Menge	mengeg@mdpls.org	MDPLS will conduct promotional efforts and establish dedicated self-service Census kiosks in some library locations, which will provide residents with a safe and trusted location to complete the 2020 Census online or in hard copy.	Children 0-5, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness, Other	All of Miami-Dade County	http://www.friendsofmdpl.org/
Haitian Neighborhood Center, Sant La, Inc	Gepsie M. Metellus	gepsiem@santla.org	Sant La will create print and audiovisual materials to be shared with partners to do outreach and education efforts through grassroots and culturally informed strategies focusing on Miami's North East Corridor (Little Haiti, North Miami, North Miami Beach).	Children 0-5, College Students, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.santla.org/
League of Women Voters of Miami-Dade	Marisol Zenteno	mariroa33@gmail.com	The League of Women Voters will be working in partnership with local groups to provide presentations to residents in hard-to-count areas and by providing "training the trainer" presentations to local leaders.	Children 0-5, College Students, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, People Experiencing Homelessness	City of Miami, Florida City, Hialeah, Homestead, Little Haiti, Opa-Locka	http://www.lwvmiamidade.org
Maven Leadership Collective	Corey Davis	cdavis@mavenleadership.org	Maven will launch the #SeeUsCensus campaign to restore the LGBTQ community's faith in the US census by tracking its impact in our daily lives. The campaign will serve as a call to action to be fully counted and claim the full benefit of funding, representation, and research that is influenced by the US census.	Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.mavenleadership.org/
Miami Dade College Foundation	Joshua Young	jyoung@mdc.edu	MDC will coordinate a multi-faceted initiative to engage, educate, and ensure the participation of more than 100,000+ MDC students, faculty, staff, administrators, and their expanded networks.	College Students, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness, Other	All of Miami-Dade County	https://www.mdcfoundation.com/
Mujeres Unidas en Justicia, Educacion y Reforma, Inc.	Susan J. Rubio Rivera	susan@mujerfla.org	Mujeres Unidas will conduct a multi-service outreach effort in specific neighborhoods located in south Miami-Dade county where hard to count immigrants reside, including door-to-door and social media campaigns.	Children 0-5, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers	Florida City, Homestead, Naranja	http://mujerfla.org/about-us/
New Florida Majority Education Fund	Danielle Goodman	danielle@newfloridamajority.org	NewFM-EF, in partnership with Miami Workers Center, and Florida Immigrant Coalition, will leverage their experience on knocking on doors, expand capacities, and use multiple communications platforms to reach hard-to-count residents in Miami-Dade County and activate them.	College Students, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers	All of Miami-Dade County, City of Miami, Doral	https://newfloridamajority.org/

Organization	Primary Contact	Email	Grant Purpose	Specific Audience	Specific Geography	Website
Opa-locka Community Development Corporation	Nikisha Williams	nikisha@olcdc.org	Through the Opa-locka Tech Hire Center, a community computer lab, they will provide a safe space where adults can access computers to take the 2020 Census. They will also make laptops available on a short-term basis to other community-based organizations that are interested in setting up mobile workstations where their constituents can take the census.	Children 0-5, College Students, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness, Other	Golden Glades, Hialeah, Miami Gardens, North Miami, Opa-Locka	https://www.olcdc.org/
Radical Partners	Sarah Emmons	info@radicalpartners.net	Radical Partners will leverage best-practice behavioral tools, such as text message reminders and influential messaging leveraging hyper-local data about Census completion rates, to encourage Miami-Dade locals to complete the 2020 Census.	Children 0-5, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, Other	Brownsville, City of Miami, Hialeah, Homestead, Little Haiti, Miami Gardens, North Miami, Opa-Locka	http://www.radicalpartners/
The School Board of Miami-Dade County, FL	Iraida R. Mendez-Cartaya	imendez@dadeschools.net	M-DCPS will educate the school community that has low response rates based on the Response Outreach Area Mapper (ROAM) data and leverage their relationships with parents, family members, students, and school site administrators, teachers, and staff.	Children 0-5, Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults, People Experiencing Homelessness	All of Miami-Dade County	http://www.dadeschools.net/schoolboard/
Town of Cutler Bay	LaKeesha Morris-Moreau	lmorris-moreau@cutlerbay-fl.gov	The Town will implement an outreach campaign through community canvassers, targeted digital and print marketing, outreach to neighboring municipalities, and public information sessions.	Children 0-5, Non-English Speakers, Older Adults	Cutler Bay	http://cutlerbay-fl.gov/
WeCount!, Inc.	Jonathan Fried	jonathan@we-count.org	WeCount! will target Latin American immigrants, farm workers, undocumented persons, indigenous immigrants and immigrant youth, through specific targeted messages, radio announcements, and door-to-door outreach with information about the census 2020.	Farmworkers, Immigrants, Non-English Speakers	Florida City, Homestead, Leisure City	https://we-count.org/